Bicentennial Blanket Project: While we have reached our 200-comforter goal in a brief 6-month period, we now need to sustain the momentum and continue to knot to complete the remaining tops. Wednesday, June 13 we will gather for the next knotting event. Come from 2:00-4:00 or 6:00-8:00 and contribute your knots and join the conversations. Knotting will continue, including Sunday mornings, until all comforters are knotted. THANK YOU for your continued work. Your work and support are so very appreciated. You’ve been amazing!

In the latest episode of the Ohio Conference Cast, hosts Bill Seymour and Thomas Dunn chat with Terry Shue, who recently completed his work with Mennonite Church USA as director of leadership development. Bill, Thomas and Terry discuss a wide range of topics, including (among other things) new staff members for Mennonite Church USA, Mennonite World Conference, and Terry’s hopes for the Ohio Conference.

Terry also talks about another topic dear to his heart, the Camino de Santiago. He and his wife made a pilgrimage on the Camino two years ago, starting in France and walking 500 miles across Spain. This year they are returning to the Camino to walk it again, this time beginning in Portugal. Listen to this podcast to hear Terry’s description of how talking with other pilgrims walking the Camino affected him.

You can find this podcast on iTunes or the Ohio Conference website: www.ohiomennoniteconference.org/podcasts.
