ANNOUNCEMENTS

Oak Grove Library: Many church library books are missing from the shelves. If you have checked books out of our church library, please return them and notify Wanda Beattie, our church librarian.

Update on the Gill family: Steve has been released to go home and will continue physical therapy through home health care. Lucinda Gill would be interested in getting a ride to church on Sundays. If you are able to pick her up, please contact her at 330.749.6209. Steve and Lucinda have also moved into a new home. Their new address is: 2727 Eastwood Drive, Wooster, Ohio 44691.

MCC Hygiene Kits: Outreach Commission is collecting supplies for Hygiene Kits to donate to MCC through May 11. Please place supplies in the blue barrel in the Foyer. There is a handout in your mailboxes with the supply list or visit mcc.org/kits/hygiene

As you start to plan and register for 2025 summer youth camps, please be reminded that there is $150 in campership funds for anyone attending.

Lighthouse Ministries: Thank you to everyone who made our Annual Banquet a success! With awe and grateful hearts, we can share that we have met and exceeded our goal! Through your generosity, we will reach our budget for this fiscal year. The match will be leveraged to cover the anticipated shortfall in funding for '25-'26, to expand programming, and to dream big for our future!

Registration for the 2025 Central District Conference annual meeting is now open. The conference will be held at Bluffton University, Bluffton, Ohio, June 19-21. You can find more information and register at <https://mcusacdc.org/2025-annual-meeting/>. Adults, youth, and children are warmly welcome to attend.
